Is there a way to have the sequential/line sequential files managed on a remote machine as is possible to do with the c-tree data files?